

wildbrumby STALLION navy strength gin

Tasting Notes

Wildbrumby's 'Stallion' is a high spirited navy-strength, contemporary Australian gin.

It blends juniper and wild mountain pepper berry with a buccaneer's booty of black tea, ginger, and orchard-grown citrus to create a perfectly balanced navy-strength spirit (57%).

This bold infusion is then tamed in our small batch pot still 'Florence' to create a smooth and spicy addition to the expanding range of wildbrumby gin.

Our mariner's blend was crafted for gin connoisseurs in search of a strong, flavourful spirit, and recently won gold at the 2017 Asia International Spirits Competition.

Subtle notes of cassia coalesce with more dominant juniper and citrus picked from the family orchard to deliver a punchy pallet of flavours.

A smooth, viscous 'oiliness' rounds out the spicy spirit of this exceptional gin, further enhanced by the purity, alkalinity and mineral trace elements of the natural alpine spring water used in the distilling process.

In a perfect pairing with tonic, our 'Stallion' gin delivers a finely tuned balance of botanicals, with a stunningly sophisticated finish that can be enjoyed neat, or paired with mixers of choice.

- Structure : A full bodied navy strength (57%) spirit.
- Palate : Viscous, sturdy structure that 'walks the gangway' between the front and back palates.
- Nose : Our classic juniper and citrus duo lend balance and harmony to aromatic maritime spices, black tea and ginger.
- Finish : Complex, robust structure with well-spiced aftertaste. Superb neat and adds a whole new dimension to the classic G&T.
- Garnish : Grapefruit.
